

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS PLWHIV/AIDS Advisory Committee for 2010 World AIDS Day Campaign

The Canadian AIDS Society (CAS) is seeking six people living with HIV to sit on a National Advisory Committee to assist in the development, promotion and evaluation of its 2010 World AIDS Day awareness Campaign. For more information, see the Terms of Reference attached.

WHO

We are looking for people living with HIV to fill 6 positions on the Committee. Advisory committee members will meet the following criteria:

- be a person living with HIV/AIDS;
- possess knowledge of issues facing individuals/communities at risk for or affected by HIV;
- have experience working or volunteering within a community AIDS service organization (including frontline support, education, community development, advocacy and communications initiatives); and
- show a commitment to the Greater and Meaningful Involvement of People Living with HIV/AIDS (GIPA) principles.

The selection of committee members will be guided by CAS' commitment to reflecting the diversity of Canada's geographic regions, the populations most affected by HIV, and key stakeholders in the HIV/AIDS community.

HOW

1. If you are interested in serving on the committee, please submit your résumé, along with a one-page letter that outlines the following:
2. Your interest in participating in the campaign;
3. Your previous experience working or volunteering for an AIDS service organization or advising on an HIV/AIDS awareness campaign.
4. The unique perspective you would bring to the campaign.
5. Your city of residence, so we can determine which region you would be representing.
