

 INSIDE & OUT

KINGSTON, NOV. 30 - DEC. 01, 2014

PROGRAM
AT-A-GLANCE

Changing the Course of the HIV Prevention,
Engagement and Care Cascade for Current and Former Prisoners

Sunday, November 30th, 2014

3:00 p.m.

Registration Opens

4:00 p.m.

Welcome and Opening Remarks (Limestone City Ballroom C):

Inside and Out Planning Committee; OHTN; AIDS Bureau; Elder Gerard Sagassige.

Setting the Stage:

Moderator: Dr. Peter Ford, Queen's University

● HIV, HCV and Other STIs in Federal Institutions

Jonathan Smith, Manager of Epidemiology Services, Clinical Services & Public Health, Correctional Service Canada

Jennie Thompson, Research Manager, Correctional Service Canada

● Challenges and Opportunities in the Current Systems

Ruth Dixon, Corporate Health Care Manager, Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services

Janice Thomson, Regional Health Promotion Coordinator, Correctional Service Canada

Diane Smith-Merrill, Prison Support Coordinator, HARS

Dr. Wendy Wobeser, Hotel Dieu Hospital and Queen's University

Keynote Address:

● HIV Research in and out of Prison

Dr. David Wohl, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

● Response and Ontario Perspective

Dr. Peter Ford, Queen's University and retired head of the HIV Clinic, Kingston Hospital

Questions and discussion

6:00 p.m.

Reception & Dinner (Old Stones Dining Room)

Monday, December 1st, 2014

7:00 a.m.

Breakfast (Old Stones Dining Room)

8:30 a.m.

Prevention Panel (Ballroom C)

Moderator: John MacTavish, HIV/AIDS Regional Services

● Sexual Safety Behind Bars: An Orientation Program for New Prisoners, Developed by and with Prisoners

TJ Parsell, writer, filmmaker and human rights activist

● Project START: An HIV/STI/hepatitis risk-reduction program for people returning to the community after incarceration

Katie Kramer, Principal Consultant, The Bridging Group

9:00 a.m.

Prevention Workshops:

Sexual Safety Behind Bars – TJ Parsell (Ballroom A)

Project START – Katie Kramer (Ballroom B)

10:00 a.m.

Break (foyer)

10:20 a.m.

Harm Reduction

Moderator: Flora Matheson, St. Michael's Hospital and University of Toronto

● Opiate Substitution Program in Federal Correctional Facilities: What Have We Learned?

Shanna Farrell MacDonald, Senior Research Officer, Correctional Service Canada

● Experience in Moldova: A Presentation on Implementing the World Health Organization Comprehensive Package of HIV Prevention, Treatment and Care Interventions for Prisons and Other Closed Settings

Lt. Col. Svetlana Doltu, former head of Moldovan Prison Health Services, and Public Health Programme Director in the AFI NGO Health Development Centre

12:15 p.m.

Lunch (Old Stones Dining Room)

12:30 p.m.

Lunch speaker

Moderator: Diane Smith-Merrill, HIV/AIDS Regional Services

🗨 Improving Access to End of Life Care in Prison: A Peer-Based Program

Leslie Lofton Hospice Manager, Louisiana State Prison Hospice Program

1:15 p.m.

Care Panel (Ballroom C):

Moderator: Dr. Wendy Wobeser, Hotel Dieu Hospital and Queen's University

🗨 Increasing HIV and Other STI Testing in Prison

Dr. Lori Kiefer, Senior Medical Consultant, Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services

🗨 Accessing HIV Treatment in Federal and Provincial Correctional Facilities in Ontario: A Phenomenological Study

Elsbeth McTavish, Medical Student, Queens University

🗨 Providing Care in a Good Way to Indigenous Prisoners

Meagan Fumerton, Regional Aboriginal Health Services Coordinator, Correctional Service Canada

🗨 The Secure Treatment Unit Model: A Hybrid Mental Health and Correctional Centre

Brian Patterson, Deputy Superintendent, Treatment, Community Safety and Correctional Services, St. Lawrence Valley Correctional and Treatment Centre, Brockville
Colin Cameron, Clinical Director, Integrated Forensic Program – Secure Treatment Unit, Royal Ottawa Health Care Group

2:45 p.m.

Break

3:00 p.m.

Transitions Panel (Ballroom C):

Moderator: Dr. Diane Lu, Physician, Kingston, Frontenac, Lennox and Addison Public Health Unit

- Community Reintegration Planning Project
Ruth Dixon, Susan Watson, and Tamara Easto (MCSCS)
- Dr. Margaret Robertson (Warkworth Institution)
- Dr. Roumen Milev (Queen's University)
- Tina Knorr (Kingston Community Health Centres)
- Cynthia Martineau (South East LHIN)

Indigenous Sharing Circle (Ballroom A):

Elder: Gerard Sagassige

4:30 p.m.

Next Steps and Closing Remarks

PROGRAM
AT-A-GLANCE

PREVENT ENGAGE
TREAT 