

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
DALLA LANA SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH

www.fifehouse.org

University of Toronto 2009WORLD AIDS DAY
Centre for International Health, Dalla Lana School of Public Health and

HART HOUSE
in collaboration with

FIFE HOUSE Foundation present

HIV, HOUSING AND HEALTH with

Keith Hambly, Executive Director, Fife House Foundation
Fife House: Providing continuum of housing options to people living with HIV/AIDS

Amrita Ahluwalia, Director, Research and Evaluation, Fife House Foundation Positive spaces, Healthy places: A community based research exploring HIV, housing and health

Michael Blair, Project Coordinator, Service Coordination Pilot Project for Homeless People Living with HIV/AIDS

McEwan Housing and Support Services/ Loft Community Services
Pilot partnership project; Health, HIV and homelessness-barriers to community of care

Michael Shapcott, Director, Affordable Housing and Social Innovation, Wellesley Institute
Research Associate, Centre for Urban and Community Studies / Cities Centre and the Centre for Urban Health Initiatives, University of Toronto
HIV and housing; A policy perspective

2009WORLD AIDS DAY
Tuesday, December 1 at 2pm-3:30pm
East Common Room, Hart House, University of Toronto
(Directions from: <http://www.harthouse.utoronto.ca>)

Posters will be available for viewing

Bridging the gaps between substance use, mental health and HIV/AIDS Identifying barriers and challenges in accessing and maintaining housing for people living with HIV: An evaluation of

Fife House-Homeless Outreach Program Sustaining Health, Sustaining Housing: An evaluation study of a Fife House supported housing program for people living with HIV