

Public Health Matters

OCN Education Day

February 27, 2015

Jane Speakman

City of Toronto Legal Division

Outline

- Health Protection and Promotion Act
 - Section 22 Orders
- Personal Health Information Protection Act
- Public Health and the Police

Health Protection and Promotion Act

- Section 22: Communicable Disease Protection
- Conditions Precedent to Order
- Exercising discretion to serve Order
- Reasons for Order
- Appeal of Orders

Health Protection and Promotion Act

- Breach of a section 22 order: Next Steps
- Communicable and Virulent Diseases
- Section 35 or Section 102 application?
- Prosecution (section 100)
- Effect of Court Order

Personal Health Information Protection Act

- Framework for regulating the Collection, Use and Disclosure of PHI
- Key Principles (s. 30)
- Disclosures with and without consent

TPH and the Police

- Disclosure with consent
- Disclosures to comply with legal documents
 - Summons
 - Production Order
 - Court Order