

LIMITING THE LAW: Silence, Sex and Science

A community forum on the criminalization of HIV in Canada

Thursday, September 30, 2010

6:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Oakham House, 55 Gould Street, Toronto
Light refreshments and snacks will be served.

With presentations by:

Edwin J. Bernard | British HIV-positive writer, editor and activist;
editor, HIV and the Criminal Law and “Criminal HIV Transmission” blog

Richard Elliott | Executive Director, Canadian HIV/AIDS Legal Network

Eric Mykhalovskiy | Associate Professor, York University, Department of Sociology

Tim McCaskill | The Ontario Working Group on Criminal Law and HIV Exposure

Sponsored by:

Canadian HIV/AIDS Legal Network
HIV & AIDS Legal Clinic (Ontario)
The Ontario Working Group on Criminal Law and HIV Exposure

The Canadian HIV Legal Network is launching a resource kit for defense lawyers on how HIV works and how to apply the law:

www.aidslaw.ca/lawyers-kit

Edwin J. Bernard has produced a new international resource for U.K.-based HIV information charity, NAM: HIV and the Criminal Law. Available as a book and on-line:

www.aidsmap.com/law

The Ontario Working Group on Criminal Law and HIV Exposure is launching its campaign for prosecutorial guidelines.

www.ontarioaidsnetwork.on.ca/clhe

RSVP:

Gennet Campbell
gcampbell@aidslaw.ca
+1 416 595-1666, ext. 243

Media contact:

Gilleen Witkowski
gwitkowski@aidslaw.ca
+1 416 595-1666, ext. 240

Partially supported by the Ontario Trillium Foundation.

Sponsors:

The Ontario Working Group on Criminal
Law & HIV Exposure