

OHTN RESEARCH LOUNGE EVALUATION SUMMARY

July 25, 2017 @ Fabarnak

SHORT SUMMARY: Nathan Gibson and Mac Stewart from Investigaytors facilitated the discussions around sexual health research and concerns, and around availability of and access to quality sexual health services among gay/bi/queer men. Based on reading the article, "Sexual Healthcare Preferences among Gay and Bisexual Men: A Qualitative Study in San Francisco, California", attendees shared personal experiences in accessing sexual health services and reflected on their own (sexual) health promotion behaviours.
